Staying at Azola Hotel

DOLOMITES

Nestled in the heart of Italy's breathtaking Dolomites, Val di Fassa offers an unforgettable ski experience with over 120 km of perfectly groomed runs, seamless access to the world-famous Dolomiti Superski circuit, and stunning alpine scenery in every direction. From wide, sun-drenched cruisers to challenging descents and legendary routes like the Sella Ronda, the terrain caters to every level of skier and rider. Charming villages such as Canazei provide cozy après-ski, authentic Italian cuisine, and a welcoming mountain atmosphere that perfectly blends adventure and relaxation. Whether you're carving fresh tracks or soaking in panoramic views, Val di Fassa delivers a world-class ski getaway with unmistakable Italian flair.

The Dolomiti Superski region is one of the largest interconnected ski areas in the world, linking 12 valleys and more than 1,200 kilometers of slopes under a single lift pass. It's famous for its dramatic limestone peaks, long scenic runs, and the ability to ski from village to village without ever taking off your skis. Staying in Val di Fassa gives you a particularly strategic advantage. The valley sits right on the Sella massif, meaning you can easily access the Sellaronda circuit in either direction and reach multiple Dolomiti Superski areas without long transfers.

We will be staying in a 3* Azola Hotel in the village of Canazei in Val di Fassa. On our return, we will be staying one night at Venice Hotel Titian Inn Venice Airport de Tessara with easy access to Venice using the water taxi.
